

Abby Silverman

Partner, Silverman Weiss Dispute Resolution; Formerly of Counsel to Baker & McKenzie LLP, North American Region

Abby Silverman Weiss, JD serves as a mediator and an arbitrator, specializing in employment disputes and business controversies arising from employment relationships. She also consults on employment and human resources issues and mediation strategies. Alternative dispute resolution was a significant part of her practice when she was a Principal of Baker & McKenzie, LLP. Her practice experience at Baker & McKenzie included commercial and employment dispute resolution, business and employment law litigation and counseling. Prior to that, Ms. Silverman has held several elected and appointed management positions in Baker & McKenzie including Managing Partner of the San Diego Office (1998-2001), head of the San Diego Litigation and Employment Practice Group (2001-2007), member of the North American Diversity Oversight Committee (2002-present), member of the firm-wide Professional Development Committee (1992-1999), member of the firm-wide Policy Committee (1996-2001), and chair of the US Benefits and Human Resources Committee (1994-2001).